Integrity

INTEGRITY

Integrity
is standing up for what you believe in.

It is treating everyone equally and fairly,
acting independent of others that do otherwise.

It is being
open and honest, responsible for all of your actions.

It is speaking out when others
are treated poorly.

It is refusing to participate in actions
detrimental to others.

It is admitting and apologizing
for your errors,
when mistakes
are made.

It is respecting
your environment,
your fellow humans,
and your self.

Integrity
is not a characteristic,
it is a way of life.

It is what you do,
and what you say,
always.

It sets you
apart from others,
it defines
you as a person.

Treat others
as you would want to be treated.

Be upstanding,
be forthright,
be conscious
of your actions.

Remember to always act
with Integrity.

A mode of conduct, a standard of courage, discipline, fortitude and integrity can do a great deal to make a woman beautiful.

So I am told that writing each week, while I am bad at that will help me to deal with the trauma that has gotten me here. I saw another girl here writing in her journal like this and she said it was to overcome her perfectionism so I decided to try it too.

I don't think I like it but I am going to make the goal of writing at least twice a week, maybe more but I always say that and never do.

But since its for trauma, no one has to see it. But it will be a goal to try to make a connection with one staff member and tell them everything. I wish I could say I feel like going to [REDACTED] helped since I told him but that is just more trauma... and what is being absolved mean anyway? I didn't do the bad things. At the end of my stay, I'm going to have all the staff sign this book the right way up, with the person I'm most able to talk to be first. That way all my progress from now until the end will be clear. Ugh, I hate writing in pencil but that was all I could find and now it will be like this forever for consistency. Maybe I can work on that and try to switch to pen, but I doubt it. My handwriting sucks with this pencil. I saw the other girl putting stuff we did in her book. I'm going to do the same. I'm going to try to make mine a bit neater but I think some handouts are too big... but maybe I can cut them so they won't stick out. Okay so my first few days are past so I'm going to try to be open even though it hurts. First things first, I miss the boys so much but I know how lucky I am to have this chance. I am still in disbelief it worked and [REDACTED] was able to actually get the insurance to cover residential. She actually cried and said I needed to get on the plane and go, go, go and do my best to make it count since shes never seen it approved, so I know being away from them is hard but Im hoping [REDACTED] wont remember me being gone.

At first when I heard it was approved I thought Id be going to Arizona but when they said [REDACTED] was best fit because Im able to work with [REDACTED]

I wanted to scream and cry because I havent been back to Florida since my last time with Ghislaine and Jeffrey and so that was so scary and I didnt want to have a man therapist, even if he does know about [REDACTED] I wont be able to talk to him, even though it turns out that he is super nice and understand me.

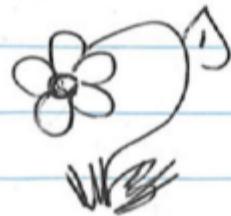

The flight wasnt nearly as bad as I thought it would be. I felt weird to be on a plane with so many other people since I was always on private planes but I think I liked it better. More safe. As a side note I dont know why people make fun of Spirit airlines because they were the only ones who were super nice about accomodating autism. They made sure to seat me in the front row and had a flight attendant stay with me the entire time. All the other airlines said no, I had to have a grown up but Spirit did everything possible. The flight attendant, I wish I got her name, she could tell I was scared, so first she introduced me to the pilot and I kept looking around to make sure it wasnt one of Jeffreys pilots that would be copilot but it wasnt. During the flight she would make sure I was okay and kept giving me free snacks and drinks and when I got really scared as we were getting closer she looked at fun magazines with me. I started getting really scared once we landed because I had to meet a driver and I was terrified that maybe this was a set-up and when I got off the plane Id see Mr Juan or maybe even Ghislaine but the flight attendant didn't make me go alone.

She walked with me to get my things and then helped me to find the driver and checked to make sure he knew where he was taking me. It was sooooo nice, so soft and made me feel a little better. I asked if she would be the one to go back with me in a couple months but she said probably not. I wish I could send her a thank you card but spirit doesn't deserve so much hate because they did everything that all the big planes wouldn't. The drive was super scary. The man was nice but the car was too much like Ghislaines. Why do so many people drive BLACK cars in Florida with windows that seem so dark. Maybe the windows are for the sun but an entire black car? With leather? In this heat? I don't understand. And he was nice but it was hard because I was trying to stop the memories and I started to have internal panic as I was looking out the window because it looks so much like we were heading right to Jeffreys house and I really started to think I'd been set up and we'd soon see his stupid, gross, disgusting pink "mansion" at any time and I don't know if I am even that close to there but the roads felt the same because everything is so flat here. He must think I'm such a snob or boor because he would try to talk on the way, I think to try to make me more comfortable but I couldn't manage because I was becoming more and more convinced he was kidnapping me and I would have to face Jeffrey again after leaving how I did so all I could make out was "uh" "no" "thank you" and some "uh hahs" so he probably thinks I'm so rude. It ended up being fine but it was super hard to keep it together. The campus is beautiful but the pool reminds me too much of bad things so I won't be going to that. It has definitely changed

I am very sad having to say goodbye.
You will be missed, but hopefully you are moving on to a rich and fulfilling life with your beautiful boys. Whenever you need a reminder remember that you are kind, wonderfully made, and special. Always remember the big picture in life and the things in life you value. Run after your values because it will always lead to a more meaningful life.

a lot since they filmed the documentary "Thin" so maybe they got money from that to make it so pretty. I was so relieved to know I didn't get [REDACTED] as my nutritionist because she is sooooo scary. She was so mean in [REDACTED] and I saw her still here but she only works with patients occasionally if they're really struggling or something. I am on the blue team. I don't really understand the difference between the teams but so far I really like everyone. The staff say I am the first patient and I'm going to teach them, too. They're so understanding and all the girls... well all but maybe two are super nice and they know I'm autistic and they all try to make me feel like I belong. I have a feeling I will become close with [REDACTED] because she's super nice. And [REDACTED] is really nice but I still wish I would have gotten a girl therapist because I know I won't be able to talk about any of this trauma. I don't like to go to the groups outside of the healing garden or the other building because I get so much panic that I think Jeffrey or Chiltaire will just pop up. I went to the art building which has 2 floors so I went to the top floor to see if I could see Maratago or the top of his grass house but I don't think I'd be able to see because all the houses around here look like the ones from the golden girls show! Why are the roofs all wonky? The forgot about the weird random downpours and thunder then sunshine again. And all the strange reptiles. No one can convince me they aren't modern dinosaurs. Well, I've written a lot so will write more soon but it's lights out so no more time. I really miss [REDACTED] but I know it's really important to focus on treatment. ☺☺☺

May 25, 2012

I knew I wasn't going to be very good at this journaling thing since I planned to write at least twice a week and it's been 10 days! [REDACTED] said I can't be too hard on myself because it's a big adjustment to be here. I can't do everything perfect he says but it feels wrong. I haven't been able to really speak all that much to him and I think my lack of talking and eye contact is bothersome. Next time we meet he thinks he has an idea about how to make eye contact easier but... I don't think anything will work. Today he implemented a sticker system which I LOVE! Today I got an orange glittery owl! It made me so happy even though I am sort of scared of all birds but these stickers are so cute! When he gave me it, I asked for him to put it in the fun book and sign it, which he did, and then when he gave it back to me, I like the shirt I am did happy claps and quickly realized what I was doing and he said I immediately had a change in body language and looked distant and sad and asked why something happy made me so sad and I wanted to tell him how even being here is traumatic and that I'm so scared that Jeffrey is around every corner but then I remember the rules, I remember the promise I made but all that came out was that it was said because someone I spent a lot of time with would do happy claps and they lived close to here but I couldn't say anything else. I'm so fucked up being down here again. But no words would come. But I told him I was writing about it and that I started to confide a bit in [REDACTED] and my friend [REDACTED] He seemed weird. I really like [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] but I do not like [REDACTED] and this other counselor who looks like a cross between [REDACTED] so just on looks alone I do not care for her

Dear [REDACTED]

I'm so sad to see you leave... you brighten my days and always make me smile. Perhaps, yes, I don't know you super well (I so wish I did), but I feel as though we're close because of the warmth and lightness I feel when you're near. Thanks for your support and gorgeous smiles. Stay strong and never change - you're sweet, beautiful (inside & out), kindhearted, down-to-earth... my list could go on and on. But what I mean to say is I feel you are all the things I wish to be. I so admire you. Take care - you deserve beauty and love in your life.

You deserve recovery.

plus she's so rude. She is only here every once in awhile but she gets so stupidly angry with [REDACTED] and I and says we are a disruption and act like we are 5 together so I won't even bother to learn her stupid name but I will never talk to her. Sorry you don't have a best friend who you can be yourself with but don't take it out of us! WTF! [REDACTED] and I have become the most best friends ever and she's definitely my soul sister but I know I can't really give her details of my trauma because she's so much younger chronologically than I am and I know it would be far too much. But I've also gotten super close with [REDACTED] and I've slowly started to tell her what happened with Jeffrey and Ghislaine and why night time is especially hard here. She's so sweet and just listens, even with all my weird pauses but there are times I can tell that she doesn't really think Ghislaine is very good but she doesn't want to upset me. She seems to be sooo much older than me because she seems wise beyond her years but she's also very, very sad. She has tried to kill herself several times and I think she views her [REDACTED] a passive suicide so I worry all the time that I'm putting too much on her. I'm still not over level 0 and I may actually be at level -1 and so she stays with me in the day room even though she can go back to her room any time. I know talking with her is safe, so I am being somewhat successful in that goal because I've told her many things as well as Mrs. [REDACTED] some things but I cannot tell her the names because she's staff and I'm sure would have to tell someone and that is not something that can happen. I think I need to get more clarification with [REDACTED] about the rules and what staff must report, especially since I'm in Florida. I want to be able to tell [REDACTED] every single thing but I get so worried given her past

She asked me if I could tell her the secret of my handwriting and all I could think of was how crappy it looks in here because I started using pencil. Why can't I just use pen? Why does everything have to be uniform? I wish I could rip all these pages out and rewrite them nicely but [REDACTED] says I can't. Not everything has to be perfect and definitely not a book that no one will ever see. I got two more stickers in my fun book from [REDACTED] and that makes me so proud! That sounds really pathetic... But I am learning to trust him more and more even though he's a man. I'm still terrified that Jeffrey will walk through the door at any moment but now that I've been here for almost a month, things have become routine, which I'm sooo grateful for. He's decided that we don't have to do family therapy anymore because he said he was able to see the games my birth mother plays and the time would be better spent with another individual session and I cannot even begin to express how happy I was that he was able to see beyond her darkness and not make me have to sit through such crap anymore. She has always controlled the narrative and he was happy to give me some of that control back. He has also decided to tape a picture of a cute dog above his head and lower it each session until I'm able to

Every time I see something Hello Kitty, I will smile & remember all of your Hello Kitty stickers, coloring pages, etc. Please take care of yourself, not only for yourself but for your boys too. They need their mother! Remember what I've told you — you could make an amazing healthy role model. You've learned the coping skills and the information, and now it's up to you. It is always your choice in recovery, and there is ALWAYS a choice. It is never too late for the path to recovery. Remember I won't give up on you, so NEVER give up on yourself. I feel blessed to have had the opportunity to meet you. I am so happy that you were apart of my stay at [REDACTED]. Not only have you brought light heartedness, joy, and laughter to me but you have also shown me what motivation and success looks like as well. You are so sweet and kind and I admire your happiness and pureness you hold in your heart. Thank you for giving me laughter when I wanted to cry and joy when I was angry or sad, you made my stay here much more easy. Also [REDACTED] I also look at your motivation & success. When I first started, especially in the Staff dining room, you helped me be motivated and [REDACTED] shown me what success looks like. I am so happy for you and know you have so much strength to continue your new way of living at home for you and for [REDACTED]. They are so lucky to have you for their mother. I have learned from you not to take life so serious, share with others, and its OK to laugh even when times are [REDACTED] tough. Thank you for being apart of my recovery. it's okay to sometimes break certain rules but I don't think that's exactly right. Today was NOT a very good day. [REDACTED] and her little group of friends are SO MEAN!!! and then they're fake! And it's beyond triggering because I swear maybe it's a Florida thing but [REDACTED] is like a miniature diva, [REDACTED] (despite her allowing me to use her prismacolor markers) is mean and [REDACTED] is fake! The stupid trio. I feel like I'm trapped here with these girls, which I guess you'd expect having so many girls living together - ugh!! but it's awful!! [REDACTED] NEVER stops bragging about her stupid beauty pageants and that she was on TV, except she was literally just a friend on teen mom for like 30 seconds! And it's all she talks about. [REDACTED] is just mean and I never want to be in the room with her, prismacolors or not and I was SO wrong about [REDACTED] She isn't nearly as kind as I thought she was and [REDACTED] doesn't understand why it's so triggering and I can't tell him. [REDACTED] reminds me so much of [REDACTED] but not as bad. At least she's teaching me how to write things in Japanese rather than teaching me how to do grown up things. Today she taught me → 力比 [REDACTED] - which looks like nothing but she says it says snafu, but now do I even check? Ha, maybe it's a bad word but she says it isn't. She has these super thin pens to do her homework in and I love them! She trusted me with the secret she felt she needed to confess and YIKES! She told me she has a problem with pathological lying and asked how I felt about that. WTF?!?! I didn't know what to say because I cannot lie but I didn't want her to feel bad so it was an impossible situation. I just sort of smiled and said if she ever wants to talk about it more that I was here to listen but now that I think about everything, how do you know when she's telling the truth and when it's a lie? She says she lost tons of people in the earthquake in Japan but now I'm like wondering if that's true? She never met someone who has that but I think Jon will be proud of how I handled it. He asked me today if I'd been writing about my trauma but I haven't really so I decided I would do that tonight since I've been noticing an increase in PTSD episodes and stimming. I know its because of the new traumas that has formed. I talked to [REDACTED] this evening and I pretty much told her everything except for the [REDACTED]. I can't write the other word and she seemed so upset by everything that I felt it was something that didn't need to be said. I know she is safe but she kept asking me if I understood that nothing that Ghislaine did was "normal in any family setting" but I tried to explain to her that she didn't understand. I have a feeling that she doesn't believe that Ghislaine didn't know about anyone else but Jeffrey. She would try to speak really gently and calmly that it doesn't make sense for her to be so close and to not know, especially since so many men were up from the city and the fact that I met her and Jeffrey up here the city but I started getting really, really super distressed and thank goodness [REDACTED] was there and started to count my fingers because I couldn't breathe. I genuinely felt I was dying of a heart attack (which the nurse said it was a panic attack and not a heart many [REDACTED] out there. If I've only met one in my entire life then it has to be a rare thing I think.. I hope. I told her that I would consider telling [REDACTED] who has officially become my most favorite counselor here. But I told her I may not be able to tell her names because of my promise and how I think even [REDACTED] would have to tell. She was super proud of me but now I'm worried she's okay. Maybe I should have staff go check on her just in case since she gets to be upstairs. At this point because [REDACTED] is still "new" to much of the staff, I'm certain I will NEVER get to be upstairs or even get off level 0! Thank goodness for [REDACTED] because she and [REDACTED] both stay in the dayroom with me, especially if [REDACTED] isn't around. Everyone calls [REDACTED] and I "the twins" now since we get ready together every morning and do our hair exactly alike and try to match our outfits together. We listen to LMFAO "sexy and I know it" every single morning and have a dance party! It is the best thing in the world and to think one day mornings won't be like this anymore sort of hurts my heart. Wiggle, wiggle, wiggle! Yeah yeah!! often times other girls will hear and come in and join and it's so much fun but we've all gotten into trouble for not being to breakfast on time. Which I forgot!

At first I was so scared when I heard the news and when I had to meet with her she could tell I was scared and she goes "You saw the [REDACTED] didn't you? That's why you're so nervous?" And that made me more scared because she reminds me of [REDACTED] and she has the female version accent of Jeffrey so I'm just a mess and nodded and she said in such a funny way "do you know how many hours of footage they shot? And then they edited it down to the clips and made me look like such a bitch! But I promise I'm nice!" and we both laughed and laughed. I REALLY like her! And she understands me and she's making adjustments to my meal plan so that the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] had the same idea about maybe writing out a list or timeline of my trauma just to myself and then maybe once I'm able to share then it will be kept safe until that time. I think I will try to do that but there isn't the time tonight.

"Oh Wretched/Beautiful Soul of Mine" by [REDACTED]

Oh wretched soul of mine
Why do you long for death?
I've followed you for years and you've enslaved each numbing breath

This journey's been so long and I am crippled by my fears Where can I turn for freedom
When bondage has consumed my years?

Oh wretched soul of mine
Don't you know that life's to live?
No longer will I bow down to you My heart no longer will I give

You used to be so beautiful and had passion, love, and hope
But this disease took you for ransom and promised an easier way to cope

Oh wretched soul of mine
I'm taking back all the control
Your empty words disgust me and I've found a new way to become whole

I don't have to use my body to substitute each spoken word
My voice will be my power
One that will demand to be heard

Oh wretched soul of mine
Your darkness is at its' end
I've embodied new identity
Light and truth I now befriend

Your time is running short

It's Just
Me

W)

You are such a strong, beautiful person.
You are an inspiration to me and I feel so very fortunate to have met you. As you continue on your journey through recovery I wish you the very best. Although I haven't known you long, I want you to know that you have made a difference in my life and I won't ever forget you and your courage.

The last few weeks have been awful!! I know it's only really been like 12 days but what a 12 days it has been. So, that lady who I REFUSE to even bother asking her name is awful and she just hates [REDACTED] and I, especially together. I was wrong, she isn't a mix of [REDACTED] she's a mix of [REDACTED] and a slightly more nice version of [REDACTED]. That's probably so wrong to even compare but she's so mean and just like angry. WTF is her problem. So, it first started when we were doing some art project in the dayroom that she was supervising. I can already tell by her stupid face and stupid blonde hair that it's going to be bad for [REDACTED] and I and pretty much immediately she yells that [REDACTED] and I are "sitting too close together" and had us separate.

So then [REDACTED] said "aww don't separate the twins" and for whatever that triggers her SOOOOO much and she's screaming to stop calling us the twins and everyone is just sitting there in shock. WTF lady? So I start to have the most inappropriate reaction which is typical with [REDACTED] (something she's obviously too dumb to know a single thing about because she's too selfish and self-centered to even learn the basics and I guess she's fine with being an immoral, self-centered, horrible person but you do you I guess) but I started laughing hysterically which made everyone else laugh and she screams at the top of her lungs "ENOUGH". So everyone stops laughing and we continued our art. Well, [REDACTED] rolled

Hey [REDACTED]!

It was a great pleasure to have you here at [REDACTED]. I hope when you leave here, you'll be able to stay focus and healthy. prioritize and keep your eyes on what's important like your kids. Stay positive and remember that you are beautiful and worth it!!! When life gets rough find positive things that will help you bounce back!! Don't let me see you here again, Unless it's for a reunion ... lol or on the street!

Hillary came and she talked to me but she said to not worry about it, she just had an impression from report that we were very rowdy together. So then that evening she was still there and when she walked into the dayroom she immediately sees that [REDACTED] and I were snuggled up in a big blanket and yells at us to "stop using the same blanket" and move to different couches. WTF! So, I move to the couch with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] starts to snuggle with me as a joke and this lady says NOTHING even though she was looking at both of us. So clearly she just doesn't like [REDACTED] nor me, together or separate. I really do NOT like her and think any sort of therapy place is NOT a good fit for her, or maybe she needs to see someone about being such a miserable, angry, bitter lady. That can't be healthy to just be so angry and mean all the time. GA-ROSS. And then a few days later it was family weekend and obviously I'm not going to have visitors, but they had called me down because [REDACTED] family had a gift for me. As I am walking down the hallway, I hear a voice and I would have sworn on anything that it was Jeffrey. It sounded IDENTICAL to him and I was just devastated because I was certain he'd found me and I was going to have to pay for what I did so I just completely freeze and don't move while frantically searching for somewhere to hide. I quickly turn right instead of going to see what they said was thought of something nice...

I WISH YOU A LONG AND HEALTHY RECOVERY. REMEMBER
ALL THE GREAT TOOLS YOU HAVE LEARNED HERE, AND DON'T FORGET TO USE THEM!! THANK YOU FOR TEACHING ME SO MUCH ABOUT [REDACTED], I WILL TRY MY HARDEST TO KEEP LEARNING.
BE STRONG AND STAY FOCUSED !!

ALL THE BEST!

[REDACTED] family but I was convinced it was to meet Jeffrey so I tucked myself in so tight under the table, cover my ears and the voice just continues. The next thing I know I have staff and other girls who didn't have family surrounding me and I had cold ice in my hand. I was searching desperately for Miss Erin but she wasn't there and Ms. Morgan was trying to convince me that it was safe to come out but I wouldn't until [REDACTED] finally came. Everyone was just staring at me and it was so embarrassing and I asked [REDACTED] what happened but she said that it wasn't important to talk about. I remembered I was suppose to go see [REDACTED] so I asked [REDACTED] to walk me to the door and it was a PARENT with the same accent. I wanted to just scream. I was very quickly okay though because [REDACTED] family bought me the most lovely stuffed animal giraffe that plays a lullaby and he moves his head! I was so happy and humbled they would think to get me something so nice that I loved. So that was a positive that happened and I have him right next to me and I never, ever want to let him go. I talked more with [REDACTED] and told her about the terminations and she cried and I wasn't sure how to handle that because I wasn't sure if she was mad at me or sad but I hugged her and she hugged back so tight. I don't think that helped me though. They say getting things out will help but that part only made me feel like a monster. My birthday is coming up and everyone is preparing! I've never

! Beautiful [REDACTED] You are one remarkable human being. I have never met anyone with as much love and compassion as you. When you smile it not only makes my day, but fills my heart. Your composity to learn and take in the knowledge your experiences that you have been threw are what make you who you are today. You are a Strong, Inspiring woman that gives me more & more hope to succeed in whatever I put my heart to. Just getting to know you as a person and what you have gone threw reassures me to strive for whatever I will put my heart to. As you can see I've changed colors [REDACTED]. Hellc anyhowse I just want to say you mean so much to me, and I touley believe you will succeed in whatever life brings you. I Love you Inside and Out. xo xo xo yours truly [REDACTED]

you

a sunny day,
a cheerful heart...

My beautiful [REDACTED]

I'll never be able to find the words to express how much you mean to me. I feel like I've known you for years and years— you're my sister, my best friend. I don't ever want you out of my life and I will do everything in my power to ensure that won't happen.

You are such a beautiful person in every way and I will miss you more than you know.

You are so much stronger than you give yourself credit for, my darling, and you can overcome your struggles if you put in the effort.

I'm so excited to become a part of your life—to visit you in [REDACTED] to meet your kids, to have Disney adventures. This is just the beginning of a strong and lasting friendship.

I love you, always and always.

My birthday has come and went and I think this has been the best birthday ever! I got to talk to these boys of mine and I miss them so much. Jon reminds me all the time though that I can't go into the real world with unrealistic ideas and says I have to remember the reality that comes with two little boys. And that it isn't easy and not always fun even when I've missed them. It's better to be prepared for the stress, which I do always keep in mind. The nurses allowed me to be the last one to wake up and when they came to wake me up for vitals, they sang happy birthday and gave me cards! EVERYONE wore rainbow and I wore a rainbow tutu! At every meal they did happy birthday and when I went to the dayroom it was the most AMAZING scene! Everyone came together after lights out and decorated the dayroom for me! And everyone gave me cards and even gifts! I didn't have any words! I had to use my last notebook to be able to put everything in. It was magical and something I'll never, ever forget. AND I DID IT! I made intentional eye contact! ~~WOW~~ UGH! It doesn't have to be perfect! But sooooo annoyed. I need to slow down. I made my first intentionally eye contact and so many people saw and cried. And poor Jon was so upset because it wasn't with him despite the many weeks of the dog card, but it was with Miss Erin, after I had an absolute melt down over the meal room being changed.

I wanted to end yesterday happy, as I didn't want to ruin the magic of my birthday. I've been having staff sign this book in the reverse order because I'm not sure when my last day will be. To think my time here will be ending soon is bittersweet. I am so excited to get home and see the boys and Jen but I will miss everyone here so much.

Miss Erin gave me her beautiful bracelet and I don't think I'll ever take it off. She's the best and promised we would stay in touch. I made her promise until 108 years old and we pinky swore. I met my goal of connecting with a staff member and I told her everything. She is safe and I know it will be safe with her. She said as long as I'm wearing her bracelet, I am safe to now write the trauma in here. I don't need to be detailed but for me to process and understand. She doesn't think I have a full understanding and thinks one day I'll need and want to process it with a grown up when and if I am ready, but she wouldn't explain the things she felt I didn't understand. I promised I would do that as soon as she left and so I know I must do it before she gets back for lights out. I'm not sure how to do this but I'll do my best and if I did it wrong I'm sure she'll say something.

EFTA02731314

DON'T EVER GIVE UP! YOU ARE SO MUCH STRONGER THAN YOU THINK YOU ARE. WHENEVER YOU ARE UPSET AND DON'T FEEL LIKE YOU CAN TALK TO SOMEONE, REMEMBER WHAT I WOULD TELL YOU! REMEMBER TO HOLD ON TO ONE OF YOUR STUFFED ANIMALS, LIKE YOUR BEAR, COLOR A PICTURE, WORK ON YOUR JOURNAL, LISTEN TO MUSIC, OR EVEN WRITE A NOTE TO ME EXPRESSING ALL OF YOUR FEELINGS. YOU ARE A BEAUTIFUL PERSON BOTH INSIDE AND OUT. LET YOUR SMILE SHINE, BUT DON'T EVER FEEL LIKE YOU HAVE TO PRETEND EVERYTHING IS OK. YOU HAVE A GREAT SUPPORT SYSTEM AROUND YOU. AND DON'T BE AFRAID TO TRUST OTHER STAFF MEMBERS; SOMETIMES THEY'LL SURPRISE YOU! I WILL SEE YOU SOON, BEFORE YOU KNOW IT. HAVE AN ABSOLUTELY WONDERFUL BIRTHDAY!!! :-)

How in the hell am I suppose to have "radical acceptance" of these things? It's a horror story that I survived. Why was I allowed to survive? Am I a monster? I wish Miss Erin would hurry up and come back because I don't know how to radically accept the unacceptable. I don't know if Ghislaine should be in there. [REDACTED] and Miss Erin thinks so, Carrie thinks so but what am I missing? Why won't Miss Erin say? I'm going to ask as soon as she returns. I don't want to radically accept, I want to know why. What could I possibly learn from this? A priest! I planned that out so well. He couldn't talk or tell. He is supposed to be good. Why? I need to go find Miss Erin and ask for medication. VVV

Dearest [REDACTED]

It's hard to even know where to begin! You are such a kind, caring person, and I am so grateful to be your friend! You are so positive and you always make me smile! I am so amazed by how strong you have been throughout this process. You have handled even some of the most alarming circumstances SO incredibly well! I am truly proud of how hard you work every day and how determined you have been since day one. I hope that one day you can see how WONDERFUL you are. I absolutely adore you, and know your boys are lucky to have such an amazing mom. I know the journey hasn't be so easy thus far, but I have so much hope for your future! We are learning how to let go of Self-destruction and find the freedom to LIVE. And that is my prayer for you, that you will truly know how WORTHY, VALUED, LOVED, & TREASURED you are. You are a gift to this world, my friend, you must start believing that to be true. I love you dearly, and hope we will continue to remain friends & be there for each other outside of [REDACTED] because our goodbyes from here are NOT an end... rather they are just the beginning of the rest of our lives. Please be good to yourself. I care about you too much to watch you/let you continue to hurt yourself. It's time you start giving yourself the same care you so graciously give to others

I have been so messed up but everyone has been doing everything possible to cheer me up. [REDACTED] is gone. So many people being discharged and I don't want to leave any time soon. I don't feel ready. I mean I do with eating, I won't put my recovery in danger but I can't radically accept. Jon and Miss Erin assured me they'd find a team back home to help me but do I even deserve help unraveling all of that? I feel so stressed out and overwhelmed and I have so many questions. No one is safe outside of here so how will I ever understand if I have to keep the promise. Miss Erin says that was a bad promise but it's all so confusing. I don't think I will write more, I think I've fulfilled the assignment and won't have time once I return home and have to go back to school, work and having the boys. The rest of my time I want to spend with all the amazing people here, both staff and patients who I will miss beyond words. I've learned so much here and I will forever be grateful. My last goal will be to have Miss Erin come to VA to be my counselor! Will I can only hope. I know this seems sad but I'm actually hopeful. I do have hope. I've learned SOME grown ups are safe, good, and moral, but you have to

My Amazing [REDACTED],

You have touched my life in so many ways. You never cease to amaze me! You are the sweetest, smartest, most intelligent, and most beautiful [REDACTED] girl(woman) I have EVER met. You have such a passion for life that inspires me each and everyday. I can't help but smile when I see you and when I'm with you because you make me so happy. I feel so blessed and lucky to have met you. You are so dear to my heart and truly are an angel in my life! I believe in you with ALL my HEART and I know you can do this. I hope & pray we will always keep in touch. Please promise me that you will always keep fighting and NEVER EVER give up. I will ALWAYS be here for you NO MATTER WHAT. I love and adore you SO VERY MUCH!

Words cannot express how much you have touched my life. You are absolutely beautiful inside and out. It hurts my heart when you tell me stories of things that have happened to you in the past. Please know that I find you to be incredibly bright and articulate. You are truly an amazing person. I really hope we can stay in touch one I leave. Try to keep in mind that your past, while it is a part of you; it is not you. You have the ability to do anything. I believe you will change the lives of so many people. I'm glad we got to be roommates, even though it was just for a couple of nights. I'm sad I'll miss your birthday, but I will be thinking about you all day and your rainbow dress. You make me smile even just thinking about you! You are my sunshine, and I'll never forget the kindness and love you've shown me. Thank you.

Dear Miss [REDACTED]

Thank you so much for all your words and for teaching me how to work with someone [REDACTED] I have had a truly wonderful time getting to know you. I hope you learn to see the beauty within yourself, for you are an absolutely lovely person inside and out. I hope you continue working to keep yourself safe and healthy. I know you have the strength to grow, you only need to let yourself blossom. I will remember you forever, until I am 103 (and maybe even a little longer after that).

I want you to always remember what a very special person you are. No matter what anybody has told you in the past or will tell you in the future, you are beautiful, smart, funny, caring, and have an absolutely amazing spirit! I want to thank you because I have truly learned so much from you not only about Autism but also about really connecting with someone. Also, you have given me the most beautiful piece of art ever.

It really means so much to me [REDACTED] because it represents my work and makes me feel like I have made an impact on someone's life, which means more to me than I can even describe. I can't wait to see it in the calendar!

I don't want you to give up [REDACTED]! You deserve to live a wonderful, happy life with your adorable little boys and they deserve an amazing and healthy mom to always be there for them!

Be good! Take care of yourself! And no more twines!! I don't want to have to worry about you!
